

Gwailo have become "notorious for their live shows", playing across the UK this North East outfit draw influence from rock heavyweights throughout the decades, twisting and fabricating their own form of bad-natured blues! Bringing edge swagger and unbridled energy they have been transporting audiences on a Rock N Roll injected journey since 2017.

Gwailo have supported bands such as The Black Spiders, Manchester's Gorilla Riot and The Hot Damn. With a string of hard rock singles their release "Rock N Roll Seduction" has received national and international airplay as well as being hailed as a song that "Captures the essence of Rock's allure" by Stargazer Music magazine and "Nut-grabbing foot-to-the-floor rock n roll" by Backseat Mafia.

The band consists of Michael Curry fronting on lead vocals, Seamus Emery thundering on drums, Steve Crosby on bass guitar, Kyle Dickinson delivering rhythm guitar and David Henry taking care of lead guitar duties. United under an unbeatable work ethic to write and perform killer rock music.

Gwailo are currently in production of their debut album which will be released in 2026. As well as new music, 2026 will have see the band hit stages across the UK in support of the upcoming album.
